The image is a screenshot of the Nature Cell Biology website. At the top, the journal logo 'nature cell biology' is displayed in white on a dark blue background. Below the logo, a navigation bar contains links for 'Home', 'Current issue', 'Comment', 'Research', 'Archive', 'Authors & referees', and 'About the journal'. The main content area features the article title 'AMBRA1 links autophagy to cell proliferation and tumorigenesis by promoting c-Myc dephosphorylation and degradation' in a large, bold, black font. Below the title, the authors' names are listed in a smaller font: 'Valentina Cianfanelli, Claudia Fuoco, Mar Lorente, Maria Salazar, Fabio Quondamatteo, Pier Federico Gherardini, Daniela De Zio, Francesca Nazio, Manuela Antonioli, Melania D'Orazio, Tatjana Skobo, Matteo Bordi, Mikkel Rohde, Luisa Dalla Valle, Manuela Helmer-Citterich, Christine Gretzmeier, Joern Dengjel, Gian Maria Fimia, Mauro Piacentini, Sabrina Di Bartolomeo, Guillermo Velasco & Francesco Cecconi'. Below the authors' names, there are links for 'Affiliations', 'Contributions', and 'Corresponding author'. At the bottom of the page, the journal information is provided: 'Nature Cell Biology 17, 20–30 (2015) | doi:10.1038/ncb3072' and 'Received 26 June 2014 | Accepted 23 October 2014 | Published online 01 December 2014'.
